Memorandum

TO : Director of Training

DATE: 6 February 1964

FROM : MSOC

SUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report #5
30 January - 5 February 1964CONFIDENTIAL

1. Brookings

One of the highlights of the second week at Brookings was a candid presentation of the role and responsibilities of the press and other communications media made by Douglass Cater, former editor of The Reporter magazine. Another high point was the insight given by Frederick Holborn of the White House Staff on the changes in White House operating procedures since President Johnson took office.

2. Schedule

W The schedule for the last two weeks is almost complete. Firm commitments have been obtained from Harlan Cleveland and Secretary Mann, and Governor Williams' office is optimistic about his ability to appear.

3. NASA Briefing

W A three-hour briefing at NASA Headquarters has been scheduled for Wednesday, 12 February.
